Golden Anniversary Noted by Halversons

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Halverson, Sr., 1803 S. Patton, San Pedro, who have been residents of the area since 1925, are celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary with a three weeks trip to Hawaii. The celebrants, who were married Nov. 16, 1912, in Beckenridge, Minn., sailed aboard the Lurline last Friday afternoon. Prior to sailing approximately 200 guests attended a champagne farewell party in their honor held in the ship's ballroom.

Sailing with the Halversons were Mr. Halverson's brother, A. L. Halverson, and his sister, Miss Lillian Halverson of Minnesota; and the couple's daughter, Mrs. Winifred Leavell of San Pedro.

Meeting the Halversons in Honolulu were Mrs. Halverson's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Myers of Porterville. The entire party is staying at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel.

Among those from Torrance attending the farewell party were Messrs. and Mmes. William Shawger, Gilbert Derouin and Don Hyde.

The Halversons came to San Pedro from Asakis, Minn., in 1925. Mr. Halverson, who had been a banker in Asakis, opened the Halverson Mortuary in San Pedro shortly after his arrival and in 1955 began the operation of the Torrance mortuary.

The couple has two daughters, Mrs. Winifred Leavell and Mrs. Ruth Bender, and a son, Henry Halverson, Jr., all of San Pedro. They also have six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Mr. Halverson is a member of the San Pedro Rotary Club and assisted with the chartering of the Torrance Rotary Club.

The Halversons are members of the San Pedro Presbyterian Church.

At Hot Springs

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cue, 5816 Pacific Coast Hwy., spent a recent weekend at Springborg's Glen Ivy Hot Springs near Corona.

Gerry Lynn Day Becomes Bride of Willard Capps

Wearing a traditional wedding gown of white peau de soie, Miss Gerry Lynn Day, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor L. Hunt, 1717 W. 262nd St., Harbor City, became the bride of Willard John Capps, Jr., in a candlelight ceremony Saturday evening at 7:30 at the First Christian Church in Torrance. Mr. and Mrs. Willard Capps of Huntington Park are parents of the bridegroom.

Mr. Hunt escorted the bride to the altar. Her peau de soie gown was fashioned with a scoop neckline outlined in embroidered appliques. The basque waist had long pointed sleeves. The billowy skirt fell into a chapel train. The fingertip bridal veil was secured by a pearl crown and her bouquet was of white orchids.

Mrs. Loretta Denning was the honor attendant and the bridesmaids were Misses Mardell Clayton, Madyln Hensley and Mrs. JoAnne Hofer. All wore gold velvet and satin gowns and each carried a cascade of cymbidium orchids.

Dwayne Hebert performed the duties of best man and ushers were Jerry Hebert, William Hofer and Brent Lewis.

The Rev. H. M. Sippel, pastor of the Christian Church, officiated at the marriage as Mrs. Eleanor Hanes, organist, played a background of wedding music.

Following the wedding, a reception was held for the 250 guests at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Redondo Beach. Miss Diane Baime was in charge of the bride's book.

The newlyweds are now honeymooning in Las Vegas. After Nov. 12, they will be at home at 357 Acacia, Apt. B, Hawthorne.

The bride is a graduate of Torrance High school and El Camino College where she was a member of the Tri-Phi sorority. She is employed at a trading stamp center in Hawthorne. Her husband is a graduate of South Gate High and Harbor Junior College, attended Long Beach State College. He is a member of the Los Angeles Police Force.

Triple T Club Dance Saturday Eve

Triple T Club will hold its November dance Saturday evening at the Tasman Seas restaurant from 9:30 until 1:30. Les Tronziers and his orchestra will play for dancing.

At this time the new committee for 1963 will be announced. Committee members planning Saturday evening's affair are Messrs. and Mmes. Nick Dralle, Robert Rojo, Louis Dyer and William Shawger.

Donna Marie Simon Is Now Mrs. J. L. Hickman

Donna Marie Simon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold R. Simon, 1317 Portola, Torrance, walked down the aisle of the First Church of The Nazarene on the arm of her father, Friday evening, Nov. 2, to plight her marriage vows with Jerry Lee Hickman. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Delmar R. Hickman of Torrance.

The Rev. R. W. Kornegay stood before a background of Kentia palms to officiate at the service.

Mrs. O'Dell Warren, at the organ, played a medley of nuptial music and accompanied the soloists. Mr. Bob Foster sang, "Because," and Miss Dianne Howell sang "Wedding Prayer," as the couple knelt at the altar.

For her wedding, the bride chose a gown of white peau de soie with French lace applique and ribbon embroidery trim. The gown was fashioned with a scoop neckline and long lily-point sleeves. The bustle effect skirt fell into a short train. A pearl and peau de soie crown held the imported bridal illusion bouffant veil. The bridal bouquet was a cascade of white spider mums and chrysanthemums and contained a white orchid corsage.

Miss Patricia Ann Lewis, wearing a gold taffeta gown with a full floor length skirt, was maid of honor. She carried a cascade bouquet of
